“ I'm so happy I had the opportunity to speak to him over the phone and finally meet the man I had heard so much of. After not hearing from him for awhile I had a feeling something had happened. Thank you so much for sharing your stories. My deepest sympathy to his kids and wife.

“ I tried to reach him last year . We spoke twice last year. Since a little girl in Chicago , I was trying to find him and Felita, his sister. And once found we only spoke twice for about an hour each time . This is el hijo de don ramon ? My father was his cousin . I'm his second cousin . He told me he had prostate cancer ? The phone number I tried , left message, but no one replied so I knew there was something wrong. I'm so sorry we never got to talk further , I do remember as a 5 year old a part of his story but we never spoke of it . Dona panchita was his mom; never told him his mom made the best arroz con dulce with ginger being one of the ingredients . I miss him , his sister and his mom. Truly sorry, sorry that he's gone . And I wish and hope he's sitting on a Star now ; I'm rooting for him!
