“ Frank you will be missed. I met you many years ago. You were always thought of as a friend. We spent many hours talking. Linda and I will pray for you and your family.

“ Janet and Family,

Frank fought a tough and long battle, but truly fought it in the spirit of Frank, Although we have not seen Frank since you moved from Wolcott, many good memories remain. Frank could relate some strong opinions and below those he had a soft heart that would make all the kids (and adults) in his presence break into laughter.

He worked hard all his life and has now found the eternal peace he well deserves.

Thoughts and prayers are with Frank and the family at this sad time.

“ Frank was that guy that when you meet him you understood what real men use to be .He had the heart of a angel hidden in the body of a man. A real man. lwas blessed to be able to talk to him on a couple of occasions and always when I left him I felt better than when I came. Frank will be missed but never forgotten for he was the personification of a man. Frank is at peace and for that thankful . God Bless his family. Pastor John Wenderlein
