“ Dear Judy,
Dave and I were truly sorry to hear of the news that Timmy had passed. We both have many memories of him as a great athlete, friend and leader at St. Roberts and St. James. My father truly loved coaching Timmy at St. Roberts. I know you have had a lifetime together away from PA, but you and Timmy are not forgotten. Please accept our deepest condolences at the loss of your dear Timmy. You will be in our prayers.
Fondly,
Dave and Eileen Hayes Dickens

“ I can still hear our cousin Timmy's voice, coming to the house and seeking out "Uncle Potter". He was to us, so pleasant and upbeat and always welcome at our parents' Wallingford home. My deepest sympathies to your family. Joanne Rumsey Jenkins

“ While I can't recall much about our cousin Timmy personally, his name, as well as that of his brothers and sisters, are very familiar to me. I always felt a special affinity for that branch of the Rumsey tree, as I was named for their father, my Uncle Dave Rumsey, and I was always very fond of their mother, Kay. I remember my dad talking about Timmy's athletic successes as a teen, and then later, as an adult, his career as a motivational speaker. My sister Joanne's description (above) of Tim's "pleasant and upbeat" personality makes me believe he was probably very good at that career. I'm sorry I didn't know Tim better, but I am nonetheless very saddened by this news. My best to his immediate family, and his siblings, as well.
