“ Hi Pa, first I am so happy I got to take you home today. My anxiety was driving me crazy of not being near you. Even though I miss you so much and my heart hurts , at least I know you are home. Pa, I was on the phone with Tia Hilda and she was telling me the story of when you use to sing every Saturday on the radio in Puerto Rico. She said they all use to sit by the radio to hear you go in and sing. Pa I am so proud of you. You are so amazing. I need to find a record of you singing. Pa I love you so much. I hope your singing away in heaven. And hope you know I want you to be at peace and happy. I love you Pa ❤️

“ At this moment, a week ago today you were traveling. Your wings were being placed on you. You were about to arrive to your destination, heaven. I guess I didn't want to believe or accept it. I didn't realize , that would be the last time I fed you, the last time I took care of you , the last time I would take you out and the last time I would tell you hug me and I would feel your arms around me. My life is changed forever but I will be ok pa. You raised a strong woman, you know why? Because I'm like you. You are my twin. I'm not going to lie this hurts sooooooooooooo bad and I will miss you sooooooooooooo much!!! We've been through so much together. I have always been by your side and not being able to see you is killing me. But I can't be selfish no more, you deserve your happiness and peace. You deserve to be free. I love you pa and I want to thank you for everything you have done for me and the kids. Salina, Kevin and Jayla love you so much and they are who they are because of you. So know they will be fine, because they are strong like you. They have Gonzalez blood. Pa no matter how old I am, I will always be daddy's girl. You reached your destination and I pray you are at peace. Thank you for being you. Until we meet again, know I will not forget you. I love you pa ❤️😭

“ I miss my dad so much!!!! Pa, I want you to know how lucky and blessed I was to have you as my father. God picked you for me. You were my world. You were always there for me and taught me to be strong. But I can't be strong now because you are not here. A big part of me is gone. I love you so much!!!! I never been away from you. Not being able to call you or see you is killing me. I want you to know I thank you for everything. Thank you for always trying to make me happy. Thank you for the fun times at Shea Stadium. Thank you for the times we ate raw clams, Coney Island Trips, getting my first roller skates, my first VHS player, getting food, shopping, watching our show Abott and Castello. I can keep going on and on because there are so many memories of us. I want you to know it was honor and blessing that I was able to take care of you to the end. Thank you for being the best dad and best grandpa. Thank you for loving my kids and taking care of them as if they were your own. We love and miss you so much. I know we will meet again and when that day comes , I will run to you saying “hi pa” giving you the biggest hug and I cannot wait time hear you say “ hi ma”. Thank you Pa for giving me the best 47 years of my life. Know my tears may never stop flowing and my heart will always ache but you are free. It your turn to be happy and live for you. God bless you always and know we will always love and remember you ❤️😭
