

Andrew Harold Williams

September 5, 1944 - July 13, 2022

Andrew Harold Williams, 77, was born on September 5, 1944 in Lakeland, Florida and passed away Wednesday, July 13, 2022 in Orlando, Florida. He graduated from Boone High School in 1962. While in high school, Andy discovered chess, which would be a lifelong passion for him. He won many tournaments and gained the ranking of Chess Master. Later he helped spread his love for chess by working with different high school chess clubs tutoring their members. Andy served in the United States Army from December 1962 to December 1965. He served in the ASA division which required the 18 year old to receive a high security level; he earned the rank of SP4 E4.

Andy has joined his parents, E. Marie Wiley Williams and Oscar H. Williams; sister-in-law, Ila Jean Noble Williams; and nephew, Samuel A. Williams. He is survived by his brother, David L. Williams (wife, Linda Lou Williams) of Indian Harbor Beach, Florida; brother, Randy L. Williams of Indian Harbor Beach, Florida; sister, Susan A Cole of Orlando, Florida; sister, Rowena Milnor (husband, Ed Milnor, Sr.) of Palm Bay, Florida; nephew, David P. Williams (wife, Deandra Williams) of Trussville, Alabama; nephew, Ed Milnor, Jr. of Palm Bay, Florida; and niece, June Plummer of Palm Bay, Florida.

A Celebration of Life will be scheduled at a later date.

We will remember Andy as the kind, but quiet soul he was.
