“ *Manchester Village Apts. Indpls., In. summer of '79:
Anna was "spoiled" and wanted a Pepsi every morning, so I went to the convenience store and got a 2 liter. Several guys drove up and they were drunk (I was 14 yrs. old) and they were approx. in their early 20's.
Long story short, I went back to her apt. where Anna and my gf Debbie were talking...I told them that the Pepsi cost me a black eye...lol, no one believed me for about 10 mins. until my black eye revealed itself...we all had a good laugh...Anna was always one of my fav. first cousins. I love her and will miss her dearly! I thank God for all of the memories and that she is no longer in pain!
If you smoke, QUIT!
If you want to see Anna again, accept Jesus and follow him!!
Love you Anna!!!!*
