“ Annette was very dear to me. For about 10 years I visited her every Sunday, prayed with her, and gave her Holy Communion from St. James Caholic Cathedral. We always sat outside where she could smoke and we could just talk like old friends. My granddaughter came with me and Annette became like a "grandma" to her. Annette posted pictures of my granddaughter, Pepper, in her room. Pepper, now 14, had moved away a couple of years ago, but she was coming back to Orlando in a couple of weeks. She would have visited Annette...I shall miss her tremendously. She was a hero in my eyes. If there is a service for her, I would like to attend and if she is interred here in Orlando, I would like to know so I could visit the grave. Blessings to all her family...

I saw her last on Sunday, June 11 . For the first time she was not able to receive communion. I told her how very much she was loved and I promised to return the next day, too. But I later learned that a couple of hours after I left her she went to the hospital...and then into eternity...
