“ I remember after my son had passed and my Tio Benny and Titi Tati drove to Gainesville to see me and give me comfort. I will always remember when I saw my Tio how I threw myself into his arms, feeling that in my time of pain and agony, my Tio could take me into his arms as a daddy and could allow me to release my tears of anguish, hurt and pain. He was just that kind of a person, ready for kind words and to lift you up whenever necessary. I believed him and was assured whenever he gave me counsel.

I will miss you Tio.
