“ Thank you Ben for bringing a smile to my face with your stories and jokes. They say laughter is the best medicine and you had free delivery. You were a good friend to many.

“ Rest In Peace, Ben. I valued your stories, even the heart wrenching ones. You will be greatly missed!

Ben attended my play in Deland in 2015 and then showed me a scrapbook of his acting days. It was great to see a young handsome Ben.

All my best to the family. Tim B

Hi Tim, thank you for your kind words about my Dad. If I remember correctly we had all gone to dinner together once. Maybe Red Lobster!

“ Sorry to hear of Cousin Ben's passing [Thanks Barb J. for the call] I hadn't seen Ben for a few years. When a couple of us kids were little and Aunt Vera and Uncle Earl lived on a farm in Chenoa [I think] and Ben would give us a quarter to scratch his back and when he was giving us a quarter it would fall in the floor heat grate ..he was a very funny guy..just like Aunt Vera was. Aunt Vera and my mom Olive were sisters.
