

Brenda Lee Simmons

November 29, 1967 - September 25, 2025

Brenda Lee Simmons was born in Vero Beach, Florida on November 29, 1967, to James and Linda Monjar. She passed peacefully in Orlando, Florida surrounded by her family on September 25, 2025. She is survived by her loving husband, Ed Simmons and her beloved daughter, Lorianna Simmons.

Brenda was a loving and caring wife and mother who devoted her life to her family. She was the fierce and steady leader of our small family, always guiding us with passion, strength, and an unshakable love.

Brenda was Lorianna's biggest cheerleader—never missing a single milestone and always celebrating every accomplishment with pride. She cherished the life she built with her husband, Edward, and together they created a home filled with love, laughter, and devotion. If you ever had the chance to speak with Brenda, you surely heard about the latest joys in Lorianna's and Edward's lives, as they were the center of her world.

Brenda's kindness, warmth, and love touched everyone she met. We hope that all who knew her will carry her spirit forward, spreading the same joy and compassion that she so effortlessly shared with others. Her memory will live on in the hearts of those she loved and in the countless lives she brightened.
