

Carlo "Jhonny" Faucher

November 4, 1957 - March 7, 2025

Carlo "Johnny" Faucher was born on November 4, 1957, in Port Au Prince, Haiti. Carlo Jhonny Faucher lived a life defined by faith, family and an unwavering commitment to those he loved as the second son of his late parents, Emmanuel and Ermite Faucher.

In the early 1980's, Carlo immigrated to Boston, Massachusetts, with a deep sense of duty to help his family build a better life. He worked tirelessly to provide and support his loved ones, embodying the resilience and determination of so many who seek new opportunities in a new country. For many years, he served the Boston community as a school bus driver for the Boston Public School system, safely transporting generations of children and serving his community with pride, a smile, and kind words.

A deeply devoted Christian, Carlo's faith was the cornerstone of his life. He was a passionate fan of soccer and the New England Patriots, rarely missing an opportunity to cheer for his teams. No game was ever just a game for Carlo--it was a chance to analyze, celebrate, and of course, share his thoughts with anyone willing (or unwilling) to listen. Known for his candid nature, he was always ready to offer advice-solicited or not-to his nieces and nephews, ensuring his presence was always felt.

Carlo passed away in Orlando, Florida, in the early morning of March 8, 2025.

He was 67 years old. His death is preceded by his beloved siblings, Marie Carole Faucher and Jaques Faucher. He is survived by his spouse, Marthe Lucienne Chery; his loving sisters, Katheline Faucher Etienne and Myriam Faucher Jean (with who he shared a close and cherished bond). He also leaves behind his three children, from his first marriage, Clifton Faucher, Shannon Faucher; and Johnlynne Faucher.

Throughout his life, Carlo touched many hearts with his kindness, humor, and unwavering support for those around him. Carlo's memory will be cherished by his surviving sisters, his children, his nieces, nephews, and all who knew him. May Carlo Jhonny Faucher rest in eternal Peace, and may his memory continue to bring comfort to his family and friends.
