

Carlos E. Lopez

December 30, 1931 - January 19, 2020

Carlos Enrique Lopez, 88, passed away Sunday, January 19, 2020 surrounded by his family. He was the son of his late parents, Francisca Lopez and Carlos Mejia. Born on December 30, 1931 in Sabana de la Mar, Dominican Republic he came to the United States in the late fifties and embraced his new life as an American citizen while he retained the beautiful memories of his Dominican ancestry.

His early years in the United States opened the doors to marrying his wife, Ursulina Lopez. After 57 years of marriage, she survives him, along with his two daughters, France A. Lopez and Denise A. Lopez, his son in law, Jay A. Chahine and three grandchildren, Adrian Del Toro, Angeles Garcia and Gabriel Chahine in addition to his siblings, several sisters and brothers in law, nephews and nieces.

Of his many employment opportunities, he enjoyed serving as a security guard for a major defense contractor in Massachusetts until he retired and moved to Florida. In Florida, he worked part-time as a crossing guard - a job he considered an honor as he protected elementary children on their way to and from school.

His passions were cooking, reading, cheering for the Boston Red Sox and spending time with the family at the beach.
