“ I will always remember titi Carmen for having a young spirit and for always being on point with the way she dressed and carried herself. Titi, I will always treasure all the moments we spent together. Thank you for always making me feel special. With love; your nephew Michael. Rest in peace and condolences to the entire family.

“ What a wonderful woman she was! It was always a moment of joy to be greeted by her when we came outside our home and saw her outside. She was so kind and always smiled so brightly at us. We loved her lots.
