“ Dear Mama,

When I was younger, I would dream a lot about what you looked like. Did I look Like you? Did we have the same voice? Did you have wavy long hair like me? Did I get my height from you or dad? Did I have your legs, feet, and eyes? Did I get your lips? Wondering what you smelled like. Thinking as an adult I would never meet you. One day I took a DNA test. To my surprise hubby and I found a link to my missing puzzle. I called you. The first thing I heard was your lovely voice. I was so excited. We talked. I also sang to you. You told me what a beautiful voice I had. You told me you had your daughters looking for Rafael and me. The day I finally got to meet my sweet mama was very special to me. I never thought I would see the day. I was finally in my mama's arms. I know your not hurting anymore. You're with god now. You can now watch over all of us. Rest in peace Mama.

Love forever from

“ A golden heart stopped beating on December 31, Hard working hands are at rest.

It broke my heart to see you go, God only takes the best. They say that memories are golden, well maybe that is true but I never wanted memories I only wanted you Mom. Your life was love and labour for your family. You always did your best for all of us we will always remember you. Mom we sat beside your bedside our heart were crushed and sore. In tears we watch you sinking, we watch you fade away, and though our hearts were breaking we knew you could not stay.

My lips cannot speak how I love you, my heart cannot tell what to say. But God only know how much I missing you.

I love you mom Rest In Peace until we meet again 🥹
