

Carole Josphine Durand

February 6, 1952 - June 22, 2026

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Carole Josephine Durand, who entered into eternal rest on June 22, 2026, in Orlando, Florida, at the age of 74.

Carole was born on February 6, 1952, in Port-au-Prince, Haiti. She later made her home in Orlando, Florida, where she built a life centered on faith, family, and love. She worked as a talented seamstress, using her creativity and skill to provide for her family and serve others. Her dedication, patience, and craftsmanship were reflected not only in her work but in the care she gave to everyone around her.

Carole was a devoted and loving wife, a cherished mother, a proud grandmother, a beloved sister, and a caring aunt. She was the heart of her family, always offering kindness, encouragement, and unconditional love. Her warm smile, gentle spirit, and generous heart touched the lives of all who knew her. She found her greatest joy in spending time with her loved ones, creating lasting memories that will be treasured forever.

She leaves behind her beloved husband, Guy Marie Serge Durand; her loving daughters, Tamarra Dubuisson, Marie Flore Beauvais, and Quenia Charles; her cherished grandchildren; as well as many brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews, extended family members, and dear friends who will miss her deeply.

Though Carole is no longer with us in body, her love, strength, and beautiful legacy will continue to live on in the hearts of those she leaves behind. She will be remembered always for her compassion, resilience, and unwavering devotion to her family.

May she rest in eternal peace.
