“ I have known Cecil all my life he was one of my father’s close childhood friends. We visited him in the Bronx, went to his jewelry shop and when he retired his new home in Orlando. The only jewelry I wore as kid was always from Uncle Cecil, including getting my ears pierced. He was a fun, outgoing and he had a smile that always made you feel like you were in good company. When you were around the Chamberlain household you didn’t feel like family you were family. Thank you so much for the wonderful memories. They will like you continue to live on in our hearts. Rest In Peace Uncle Cecil. Marsha and Family
