“ Abuela Yaya used to get holy water and kind of baptize the new babies in the family. In September 2002, since Yaya was no longer with us, we decided to do the same ritual and batize my son John Francis, and guess who also was baptized that night... Chuck. I am glad you chose Tony and me to be your godparents. I am glad that you accepted God in your life even if you really did not understood it at that time. I am sad that we did not have time to make it official in a church as Maricarmen and Maribel were planning, now that you fully understood the meaning. But we have the comfort by knowing that God received you in his arms and from now on you will be watching over us...

“ Dearest Maricarmen, I am so sorry for your loss. As I hold you in my heart, God holds Chuck in His hands. Chuck is by your side as you make your way into the future. I wish I could have known him better. He was a very special man who meant so much to all who knew and loved him. Prayers for all of you to find comfort remembering the life you shared with Chuck.

“ Dear Maricarmen and Family,
There are no words that i can say to ease the grief. I can only pray that your memories and the memories of family and friends can bring solace to all of you.

My heart is with you, i shed tears with you, I feel your grief. You will be in my prayers, asking God to bring comfort to you.

Love

To Brian Winfrey and family. While I didn't know your son Chuck, I can see you in his picture. May you all gather some strength from the memories and joy he brought into your lives. Know that you are in my prayers as you all go through this period of grief. May God hold you all in the palms of His Hands. Love, hugs and prayers. Vivienne & Dennis Smith
