

Cheryl L. Sharp

February 1, 1944 - May 20, 2017

Cheryl L. Sharp, 73, of Merritt Island, FL, passed away May 20, 2017 in Orlando, FL.

Cheryl was predeceased by her husband, Ronald C. Sharp Sr, in 1994. Left to cherish her memory and carry on her unique sense of humor are 3 sons and their families; Ronald Beagle, Roger Beagle, Ronald Sharp Jr. and 6 grandchildren. Before her illness, she owned and operated her own medical transcription business and was proud to have worked at Kennedy Space Center during the height of the Space Shuttle years. Cheryl loved spending time with her many crafts and hobbies – she enjoyed amateur geology and was skilled with ceramics, sewing, and beadwork. For the final years of her life Cheryl received loving care at Solaris HealthCare Windermere.

Flowers gratefully declined in lieu of donations to www.hopehelps.org. The family will celebrate her life in a private service and interment next to her beloved husband.

Tribute Wall

BB

“ I definitely want to pay tribute to Cheryl. We met at the Getting Well Center in Orlando in 2003. She was a participant in the program and I was an administrator, but learned quite a lot participating in many aspects of the program.

One thing I learned, was that it is quite worthwhile to all concerned to alleviate suffering for "another"....it's one of those things that always reciprocates, not only on an individual level, but on a much larger scale. Cheryl and I developed a strong bond, both having a heart for compassion and both an eye for administrative detail. We were a mutual admiration society! I had to remind Cheryl on more than one occasion, that although I was there for her, she was also there for me. My only regret is that I would have like to have done more for this great soul than I did. She will be sorely missed, but also remembered for her big heart and yes her wonderful sense of humor, no matter what. Thank you for your friendship and kind heart. Your loving friend, Barbara Betancourt

Barbara Betancourt - May 29, 2017 at 08:56 AM

RS

“ Mom - you will be missed. It was so hard seeing you in so much pain over the last years of your life. You were always such an outgoing person and I know how hard it was for you to be "trapped" by your disabilities late in life. You've given the three of us your sense of humor and sense of independence - because of you, we can do anything and we never take no for an answer. I'm so happy Locklyn was able to meet you and I think humor must be genetic because she's certainly silly like the rest of us. I know you are at peace now with Dad, but it doesn't make it any easier or make my heart hurt less. Thank you for raising me to be a gentleman - I know you made a lot of sacrifices. I love you and miss you very much.
Ron Jr.

Ron Sharp - May 24, 2017 at 11:54 AM

MA

“ I am very sorry for the loss of your loved one May the God of 'everlasting comfort and good hope ' 2Thessalonians 2:16,17 comfort you.

Marie - May 24, 2017 at 07:51 AM