

Cheryl Elaine Smart

April 19, 1964 - February 14, 2017

Cheryl E. Smart 52, Orlando, FL., passed away peacefully on February 14, 2017 in the presence of her family. Cheryl is certainly in the hands of our Lord Jesus Christ. She was born again of the water and Spirit at a young age and has maintained her faith in basic Bible truths throughout the years.

She was born in Yuma Arizona, on April 19, 1964, a daughter of Terry and June Crosby.

Cheryl is survived by her husband Donald A. Smart, whom she married on May 6, 1989, in Orlando, Fl. They were married 27years. She is survived by a daughter, Danielle Ashly Smart, Orlando, Fl.; her parents Terry and June Crosby, Union City Pa.; a sister, Robin C Daigle, wife of Jimmy Daigle ,Kinston NC.; a brother, Terry Crosby Jr. husband of Dawn Crosby, Canfield Oh. Cheryl is also survived by several aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces and cousins.

Cheryl worked for the Walgreen's distribution center in Orlando for several years. After getting married and due to a disability she became a full time homemaker and was totally devoted to raising her lovely daughter. She participated in several volunteer activities that enhanced the children's educational programs in her area. Cheryl delighted in photography. Many moments and precious memories were preserved by her insistence that there would be, " just one more picture". She enjoyed the beach and collecting sea shells with her daughter.

The courageous battle she fought with ovarian cancer occupied ten years of her life. This woman became an inspiration to many people. The Holy Spirit, through the translating power of heaven, translated her pain and hardships into the eternal blessings of Jesus Christ. Physicians gave her a short time to live on more than one occasion and each time she survived to become a miracle of God for all to see.

Most notably, Cheryl Smart was a kind person, thinking of others first, giving unselfishly of herself and passing joy on to those who met her. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends. . We pray she has now found the peace that so often eluded her in life. "Do or Die, Just One More Time."

“ Cheryl, I praise God for your gift of friendship of almost 20 years. We shared many memories and I have to rely on them for consolation when my heart feels heavy and yet, part of me feels very happy that you are now with God and in perfect health. You showed great courage and determination during your illness. You have been an exemplary mother to Danielle. I will miss you a lot, our talks and visits. I will never forget you. I love you very much, my Friend.

Love always,
Maida

“ My dearest Cheryl. I will miss you everyday and you will live on in my heart forever. I am so very grateful and privileged to have been able to walk this journey with you. We had a lot of heart to heart talks as I sat with you. During your many chemo treatments and Dr visits. You always stayed humble and positive through the whole thing. My heart breaks however I am praising God for giving you the peace you so richly deserve. You fought this battle with dignity and pride with your head held high.....You are the thousand winds that blow. You are the diamond glints on the snow. You are the sunlight on ripened grain; you are the autumn's rain. You are soft star that shines at night. Don't stand and cry for Cheryl she is not died she is whole and with our Lord and Savior. If you don't know Jesus Christ that would be the one thing Cheryl would want you to know so we will see her again. Love you with all my heart Angela Miscoe

From the moment I first met Cheryl in 2006 as we worked on the school yearbook, she was always dedicated to being involved in Danielle's life. She loved her family! May you rest peacefully and painlessly now! You will be missed!
