“ As your Mom who will always love you no matter, you are always close to my heart. Looking through my facebook entry of November 26, 2017, you were all over it because of my sadness. I'm sorry we did not make up before your passing. My heart aches so much just thinking, had I called you that evening maybe things would have been different. I sit here with the tears welling up, but it's okay because I always remember Uncle James and Aunt Julia reminding me, "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning. Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted. Chris will always be remembered and not forgotten. Your nights may be many, but joy shall come." So, I say to you my son I'm feeling a little sad and know the joys of a good day. You have a beautiful great grandniece Maeve Christina Murdoch she's 3 1/2 and reminds me so much of you when you were that age. Smart like you, athletic like you, into everything like you. Cayla's first, Cayla says she knows you would have loved Maeve. I know you would have. Cayla's pregnant hoping for her boy not till September, it's still early. She needs our prayers and support. I love you truly. Mom

“ I heard from your Uncle Ted the other day. Here are a few excerpts from his letter. "Chris was very special to me, he always bragged to everyone that I was his uncle; but I too always bragged to everyone that he was my nephew. He always made me feel loved and respected, and admired. I'll always remember his infectious smile. I loved that dude, he was my little brother and my son at times. You (Chris) were special to all of us; your smile and warmth will last forever and ever. When we lose the ones we love the most, it's a reminder of our own mortality, it's time to take pause and come to the realization that all we have is God and each other. God will always be here, but we won't. We have to love each other everyday of our lives without fail, and some days will be harder than others. Please give Chuck, Donald, Douglas, Chris' wife and kids, Connie, DuShawn, and the family my condolences. I love you all. Be strong!"

“ *A shadow flits before me, Not thou, but like to thee;
Ah Christ, that it were possible for one short hour to see
The souls we loved, that they, might tell us
What, and where, they be!

Missing you so much; see you in the morning.

“ I have so many fond memories of Chris; when I would visit Deb every summer, and when I lived with them in Buffalo; great memories, that make me laugh at how crazy and silly we all were, but we were young and enjoyed being silly, and having fun, and Chris jumping off of everything; I love you; RIP❤️

“ The last time I saw Chris was at our 2004 Reunion. It was wonderful because he was there with his entire family. So many years so little time to reconnect. We hoped for another reunion another chance to be together Chris we miss you. We love you. We hope your sons will come see us so we can connect with you through them God's blessings to the family. Much love. Aunt Liz

“ To the Guadalupe/Aulder/Harris families,
Our deepest and most sincere and heartfelt condolences on the passing of your loved one Christian. My family and I will continue to keep all you in our prayers. I was fortunate enough to have been a part of Chris' life from the time he was born when Debbie & Charlie, Susie and I lived together in Kew Gardens, Queens. What a sweet beautiful baby he was and he captured my heart. Although I was only 18 at the time & didn't have any children yet, I used to love babysitting Chris and Charlie. I fondly remember after Debbie went back to work at the phone company, after I got off work from my banking job on Wall St., I would take the J train into Brooklyn & pick Charlie and Chris up from Gert's when she lived on Jefferson St. Chris was a very sweet baby and I remember giving him the nickname "Kato" from the Green Hornet" as he was active and liked to kick his little legs. Again, so sorry for your loss and may the love and happy times that you shared with Chris carry you through this difficult time.

Sending each of you all kinds of love.

Forever in our hearts Chris,

Susie, Jan, Kathy, Mici Knox and our families.

We love you

“ Father God I pray to you right now, that you stay by my sister and my three nephews, and help them get through this difficult time in their life, cover each and every one of them with your blood, and guide them through this healing process!

And help them through their pain and sorrow, and let them know that they are not alone! And protect them always!! Amen...

"Love all of you" ALI
