“ Jeffrey will be missed terribly. He was like a brother to me as well as one of his best friends Pierce, known to many as Jay, my late husband. He was our best man in our wedding so that just goes to show how much he meant to us...we knew him for over thirty years and have so many great memories with him. He was one you could always count on and told it like it was which I admired about him so much. He had so many stories to tell and Jay and I had so many laughs with him!! I'm at peace with his passing, knowing that he is with several who loved him.. Kathy, Jay, Scott, Joe, his Father, and many more. Rest In Peace and until we meet again my friend....❤️

“ No one could of asked for a better brother-in-law than Jeff. Even after Cathy left us, he was always in our lives and will always be family. We were all happy when he truly found happiness again with Lorie and we watched the smile on his face. What I will miss most is the way he could tell a story and make everyone laugh. Also for always remembering the many nieces and nephews birthdays and graduations. You were a great person and will be missed. Love Teri and John

“My heart goes out to you, Lorie and the Krautler family. Jeff was a friend of many years and my husband's best friend. He is was our best man in our wedding. There are countless memories and laughs that we shared. We took several trips with he and Kathy to the Keys. He was a dear friend who will be missed but not forgotten. And I pray Jeff, Jay (my husband), and Kathy are all smiling at one another now and forever more! ❤️❤️❤️

I am a old old friend of Jeff. I knew him in high school. He was my best buddy. We were in the same home room class because our last names had the same Letter. Well it just so happens in life I married one of his best friends. We kept in touch just recently in the later of 2019. We had finally retired and moved to Tampa area. Jeff said he was going to have surgery soon and when he recovered we would meet in Lakeland. Well we have not seen him since 1986. Yes! We were so excited so was he. I got to hear his voice I so remembered when I was young. We never heard from him for months. Well I googled him thinking all was ok and that he was busy. He told us he met someone and was going to get married. We were so happy for him! He was soooo happy. Well, tonight we found out via google. I remember his house in calverton and my husband remembers all there trips together camping. We loved Jeff. He will always be in our hearts. Rip love Debbie Koletar now Quattrone. And Ed Quattrone.
