“ My friend and counselor, Daniel. I could always count on Daniel for giving me honest advice even if I didn't want to hear it. I can still hear him telling me to "Calm down" as I dramatically tell my version of events at work. There was a reason I declared you my work boo 2. I will miss our talks, our quarterly lunches at Longhorn, your big hugs... oh and that one-of-a-kind laugh. You are one of the reasons I'm engaged today, so thank you. You were so proud that your counseling sessions paid off! lol I am so honored we were friends Daniel, and I will miss you.

“ Danny and I are siblings. He is one of the first people I met when I was born and as kids we were inseparable. My heart mourns the loss of this amazing, kind, funny, gentle giant, sarcasm included. I miss his presence in a quiet room. I love you always Danny. Your little sister, Jas.

“ I worked with Daniel on a project when he was at Toptech and I was at BP.

Daniel was kind, gracious, helpful and fun to be around. Daniel had a great sense of humor.

The news of Daniel passing is shocking, sad and heartbreaking. Especially for his family and close friends.

I wish his family strength in this time of sorrow and mourning. I hope your memories of Daniel bring you comfort.
