“ I remember taking a road trip to Kentucky with Danny and Todd in my Buick Regal. The radiator blew somewhere in Georgia and as soon as we pulled over two undercover cops pulled over with us. Danny said something about how that would never have happened in Florida the cop just looked at Danny and Todd like they were crazy. There were so many camping trips and fishing trips. Danny always had something funny to say. We haven't been close lately but loosing you is heartbreaking.

“ I remember when you were born just 2 months before our Jay and comparing the two of you in your little baby seats and you were the BIG BOY! I also remember the soccer games that you played together and it seems just like yesterday when we experienced such happy times. We love you Danny and Uncle Denny and Aunt Teresa look forward to seeing you again in heaven.
