“ He wasn't just someone who I met in my life, he was someone who brought me to life, he was my dad. He was the best dad, if I will. He was the nicest person I knew, and losing him at 6 was heartbreaking. The memories we made while go-karting, watching Nascar, and eating candy till we threw up will be forever in my heart till I pass on with him. You will and are truly missed, I hope to see you again someday, dad.

“ I met David when I was 9. We had a lot of fun growing up. Road dirt bikes. Three wheelers. I enjoyed spending time with him and the family. He had an amazing way to make others feel welcome. I will always remember the good times

“ I met Dave 11 years ago when I was dating Norm. Dave not only accepted me into the family with open arms, he did it with great love and a sense of humour! We had fun nights, the three of us staying up all night talking, laughing and making fun of ourselves.

I choose to memorialize him in my mind as a single "snapshot" from one of our all night laugh-fests, where we were laughing so hard, I peed my pants. The look on his face will forever represent "Dave" in my eyes.

“ Just to let everyone know: Dave Kelley celebration of life tomorrow is going to be very casual. There will not be a minister. My dad and I will be speaking and then anyone else that would like to. We are only going to be talking about our good memories with Dave! Dave was a big Nascar fan so if you have a Nascar t shirt feel free to wear it! Hats allowed also.....

“ Thanks for the laughs Dave, your work on earth is done. Check in on T from time (preferably not @ 2 in the morning. What the hell why not she wouldn't want it any other way...lol) to let her know you still around. That woman loves you like you will never believe. You are definitely her best friend. Give ma Diane hugs from us all.
