“ David, I'm hurt you left without saying goodbye, I never expected this. I mean I knew it was coming I knew your health wasn't good, but I always knew you as a fighter and you always bounced back. I've never seen somebody take as much punishment as you and still come back. David hasn't had the most comfortable life as most other people have had. He lost his sister at a young age, she was taken away by a monster. And I think that was the root of a lot of David's problems and his health I want to say after he lost his sister he really didn't care anymore. But would think David did he loved his friends and his family and God. David you're surely going to be missed brother, I'll see you again soon I'll give you a big hug.. love you David. Bye
