“ *Nan, Mitch, Tara, Charlie & all family,
He loved that you all loved him..even through his short comings. He loved sharing the memories of his visits to Kissimmee. He TOTALLY loved his greatest achievements, his children. And YES!..he did love a party. I loved the stories about his younger days....how he loved to sing, & play the piano....I loved hearing his little bird whistle every time he came walking by my house...but most of all I love that I was able to call him my friend!
Dave you will be missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing you. God Bless you Dave Mitchell...Love your friend, Teri* “ Nan, your Dad is in a better place now where he can watch over you instead of the other way around :) I just wanted to let you know that you're in our prayers. God bless...

*Regards,
Vic*

“ Dad,

Everyone knew you loved a party. I was in disbelief when I got that 4a.m. call from Mitch saying that... you didn't make it through the night. I would have loved to dance and sing with you one last time! I thought for sure you'd be here for the party! The Mitchells NEVER miss a party! I understand though that you had somewhere else to be...

I picked out a Liberace costume just for you. I spent hours finding all the right pieces, not overlooking any details... Well, we hung the costume you never wore in your honor at Nan's house. You would have looked dashing.

I miss you, Dad. You taught me so many things. How I long for one more minute, one more memory. But I know you would tell me not to worry. You never worried. I'll try to keep that part of you with me. I won't be afraid.

I've downloaded all of the songs you loved. We'll play them for you on Friday. I hope you can come to the party, and I hope you can dance with all your family you've been reunited with upstairs! It's all about you <3 We love you, Dad. Have fun up there! We're going to celebrate and honor you on Friday. We'll do our best, but no one could throw a better party than you!

Hugs and Kisses,

Tara

“ Scripture: Psalm 40:3

He put a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God.

David loved music and all people no matter what their age. He was a happy man. He knew no strangers. He was filled with such joy for so many reasons. David loved animals and he loved to hunt. He loved his garden and he loved canning. He could down peppers with the best of us and never flinch. He loved to party.

David had such joy for life! Our neighborhoods in Florida will never be the same. He made such an imprint.

What would our life be without joy? Without joy, we can do nothing. We would be like a piano out of tune; it yields such harsh sounds. Life without joy is like a bone out of joint; it doesn't function properly. We can do nothing well without joy.

Dave was my hero since I was a little girl. I looked up to him for everything. As kids we went to horse shows alone and he used to teach me all about horses. When we lived in Fort Myers we had such fun riding on his "Harley" up and down US 41, until we wrecked in a slimy canal.

What secrets he kept from us all. He told us he had a "little sugar" problem and a little heart murmur. Well, that was an understatement!!

Dave was so proud of his daughters and sons and their accomplishments in their lives. He loved all of his sisters and told us so each time we spoke.

God will give us a new song in our mouths and a hymn of praise to him. When we come before God with an open heart and a voice of confession, He is just and will forgive us of all unrighteousness. He will give us a new song, one written just for each one of us. As family and friends of David Mitchell, we can take this promise and turn our joy and song into laughter. David loved laughter!

Brother Dave, you are a champion.... you are my hero.

When you ran, the ground shook. You ran a great race of life. When it's all over, we will meet in the winner's circle of heaven and I will put a blanket of roses around you. Who Loves You Baby?? You know I do!

“ Dad,

I'm gonna miss you so much! You were my role model. If anyone asks me where I get my big smile and positive attitude, I always said I got it from you. We're gonna celebrate your life the way you wanted it on Friday. Love you so much Dad! I won't be afraid.
