

David Matthew Paxton

January 1, 1956 - October 31, 2021

David Matthew Paxton, 65, of Orlando, Florida passed away Sunday, October 31, 2021. He was born on January 1, 1956 in North Grinsby, Ontario, Canada. David travel with his family to Buenos Aires, Argentina at a very young age where his father worked in the steel industry. David traveled with his family to various countries in South America, but his most favorite was Argentina! He met a group of friends that he still kept in touch with via the internet. David worked for American Airlines as a ticket counter supervisor for 15 years and after that he co-owned a travel agency in Iowa. David was always passionate in everything he did and had a great sense of humor.

David is survived by his loving husband of 38 years, Cheyenne Casper Bowers and other extended family and friends, including those in Argentina where David spent his teen years. David was diagnosed with arteriovenous malformation (AVM) which eventually led to paralysis. While David had to endure a lot of pain and medical procedures, his zest for life was undeniable and his positive attitude was inspiring.

David touched so many hearts, he was the best husband anyone could ask for, and he will be forever missed.

Services will be held privately at a later date.
