

Dawn Elise Chard Ingham

December 14, 1943 - June 30, 2019

Dawn Elise Chard Ingham, 75, of Kissimmee, Florida passed away Sunday, June 30, 2019 with her family by her side. She was born on December 14, 1943 in Lawrence, Massachusetts to the parents of Donald and Esther (Prescott) Chard. She was the oldest of four siblings and is survived by her sisters Kathryn Rice (Randy), Carolyn Chard and a brother George Chard (Cindy). Dawn married David Alan Ingham in 1964 and they had two children, Lisa Dawn Molnar (Paul) and Jason David Ingham. They also adopted and raised their grandson Albert Jason "AJ" Ingham (Ashley Beck). Dawn was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and took pride in the home she and David built in Kissimmee, Florida. She loved gardening, decorating, writing, reading, and most recently spending time with her one year old great grandson August James. She was wonderfully creative and spent time making cards and sending them to all of her loved ones for their special occasions. One of her greatest passions was keeping the Prescott Family connected through an in depth newsletter. Dawn loved her FAMILY and she will be lovingly remembered by her grandsons Alan Michael and Evan Peter Molnar, Sister in law Marjorie Griffin (John), many nieces, nephews and cousins too many to name.

A small gathering will be held at her home in Kissimmee for Florida family and friends on Friday, July 5, 2019 from 4-7pm. Another "New England " celebration of life will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers donations can be made to the American Lung Association.
