“ To my sister Deborah “Debbie “
Although we lived miles away from each other, whenever we talked on the telephone or met in person we always shared the love ❤️. I love you always, and will always be in my thoughts. Never forgotten!

“ *When someone you love becomes a memory.
The memory becomes a Treasure* ❤️

These two dates are very important to me 🙏

July 19, 1957 - September 3, 2023

*However, its the dash that means so much more.
Debbie , what you have done between these 2 dates is amazing.
Thank you for showing us how to live in the DASH.
You lived life to its fullest !*

✨ Bendición mi Prima querida 🙏❤️🙏

“ Words are not enough to express the pain and hurt inside. It has been 20 years since the day we met. After DOC graduation to the after party a tour house on Gun Hill. You were a woman to be not to mess with enough with your petite frame. I love your open opinion, outspoken, no holds bat approach to life, to womanhood, and to motherhood. All your advice for me as a mother have not gone on def ears. I will continue to do what I've been doin Ma, Tish, Roy, and the kids will always have me there for whatever. This hurts as bad as losing mine. Until we meet again, Sleep In Paradise!!!!

“ Rest in power Aunt Debbie.

If I should go tomorrow
It would never be goodbye,
For I have left my heart with you,
So don't you ever cry.
The love that's deep within me,
Shall reach you from the stars,
You'll feel it from the heavens,
And it will heal the scars.

“ From your infectious laugh to cursing us out in Spanish when we were kids (& adults) you will be missed. Those Madison ave walks inspired me to this day... I even appreciated the way you would clean UP! You didn't know it at the time but visiting East 93rd was my refuge and your were the coolest Mom a teenager could hope for. Thank you for always championing for us... for me. Love always
