“ Dennis was my oldest brother who I very much looked up to. I was his chim chim and surf pup, his baby sister. I will never forget his silly jokes and his willingness to always offer his advice. All the fun times during his visits in Georgia. Disney trips. Family game night. He, Jane & the kids were the first ones to visit after my daughter was born. So many wonderful memories. He was such a wonderful brother to me, brother in law to Kevin and uncle to Lindsay. He fought so hard, he never gave up. That was the military man's strength and spirit in him. I am comforted that he is no longer in pain. You are forever in our hearts Dennis and we will miss you very much. Jane, Kristal, Brendon, Arjay, and Rosemary- our hearts are with you. We wish you strength and comfort during this most difficult time and we are lifting you all up in prayer. Love, Ali, Kevin & Lindsay

“ Dennis was brother to Bill and I and Uncle to Rachael and Nick. We will always remember the way his face lit up when he spoke about about Rosemary, her singing and acting and her bright future ahead. May God hold you in his hand, ease your suffering and guide you to a better place.

Love,

Bill, Becky, Jordan, Rachael and Nicholas
