

Diana Lynn Bates Campbell

May 18, 1947 - November 10, 2022

Diana (Diane or Di) Lynn Bates Campbell, 75, of Orlando, Florida, formerly of Leslie, West Virginia and Frostproof, Florida, passed away Thursday, November 10, 2022 at home following a long illness with COPD. Born May 18, 1947 in Greenbrier County, West Virginia, she was the daughter of the late Leonard Edward and Emily Osborne Bates of Rainelle, West Virginia.

Diane was a hard working woman who worked multiple jobs throughout her life. She was an excellent mother and everyone who met her loved her instantly as she was a caring, compassionate, and beautiful inside and out special person. She enjoyed being outdoors, planting flowers/gardening, home improvement & decorating, going to thrift stores & yard sales, movies/TV, working puzzles & playing games, going out to eat and loved being around her friends and family laughing and making precious memories. Her favorite gospel song was "God Walks the Dark Hills" by Vestal Goodman.

She is preceded in death by her son, Brett Campbell, three brothers, Gary "Rusty" Bates of Hickory, North Carolina whom she cared and loved for, as well as Jackie and Gene Bates; two sisters, Patty Jane Bates and her very close beloved sister she missed dearly, Darlene Bates Scarles. Survivors include her son who loved and adored her, Hank Campbell of Orlando, Florida. A special son-in-law, Joshua Vaughn also of Orlando, Florida; close and dearly loved nephew and family members Diane and Mike Bates of Frostproof, Florida; a very loved and special niece Tammy Scarles Robinson of Rainelle, West Virginia; former husband Henry Campbell of Alta, West Virginia. She also had many other family and close friends she loved dearly located in various places throughout the country. A special thank you to the Advent Health Orlando Hospice Blue team.
