“ I can and always will remember Guegui as the tough man with a heart to help and get things done the right way. He was proud on details. He loved music, he loved the ocean, and he loved delicious food. But most important he loved his way. So rest in peace, you had a full life of ups and downs. Rest in Gods Mercy and Love.

“ I have a few memories I can share about Dad. One is when I was younger maybe 4 years old. I remember waiting for him to get out of work to tell you to get me (pescaitos) fish and he will get his fishing pole to go and catch some for me. I'll never forget that was one of the best memories I have of you. As I grow older going to the Caranbolas for him to show his salsa move, he love dancing. He was the dancing King when he was on the dance floor. Dad is not much I can say other than, even if we didn't talk often you know I love you and always will. May you rest in peace, dad you will be missed.

Your daughter Mercy & fiancé and grandkids Edgar, Bryant and Pebbles. 😭
