

Dona Barbara Homa

February 15, 1956 - May 27, 2026

In Loving Memory of Danuta Barbara Homa (Dona Homa)

Danuta Barbara Homa, who was naturalized as Dona Homa, passed away peacefully in Orlando, Florida, on May 27, 2026, at the age of 70. She was born on February 15, 1956, in Warsaw, Poland.

Dona spent her early years in Warsaw, where she attended primary school and university before immigrating to the United States. Dedicated to lifelong learning, she later earned her Associate's degree from Valencia College. She built a respected career as a bookkeeper, working for more than 16 years with Municipal Equipment Company before retiring from Chocolate Accents, where she also served as a bookkeeper.

Dona was a woman of remarkable character and gentle spirit. She loved animals, especially her beloved cat, Rascal, and found great joy in nature and the outdoors. Passionate about environmental causes and deeply spiritual, she approached life with kindness, compassion, and an open heart. Those who knew her admired her strong values, morals, unwavering work ethic, and her uniquely vibrant personality. She was a beautiful soul, full of life, warmth, and generosity.

She is survived by her devoted boyfriend of five years, Craig Smith, and her cherished friends, Dayton and Rina Capps, whose companionship brought her great happiness.

Dona was preceded in death by her parents, Stanislaw Homa and Janina Szymczyk, and by her husbands, Ted Wish and Gary Owen.

Dona touched the lives of many through her kindness, sincerity, and genuine care for others. She was loved dearly and will be greatly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her. Her memory will live on in the hearts of those she leaves behind, and her spirit will continue to inspire those who remember her gentle nature and love for life.

May she rest in eternal peace.
