

Earl Thomas Palmer

October 8, 1934 - June 23, 2025

Born in Halifax, VA, on October 8, 1934, he moved with his parent and siblings to Brooklyn, NY in the late 50's, and worked to support his children, until his retirement. Known to many in the Bedford-Stuyvesant neighborhood of Brooklyn, as Earl the Pearl. He became a resident of Orlando, Florida at the start of 2019, and was a survivor of COVID in 2021.

Supported by his longtime friend Rebecca, he made many new friends in the senior citizen community, and even put in a helping hand at his community center.

He is survived by his son, David Palmer and his mom, Noelia, his darling sister's, Joyce, and her husband Harold, Diane Palmer, and Barbara Palmer, and surviving aunts, Janie Walker and Maple Palmer, including, numerous nephews and nieces, four grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren from his deceased son, Hector Palmer.
