“ Hi mommy i just want to say that you had been an wonderful amazing beautiful kind woman of faith mother in the world that God has gave to me. I think about you every single day. I think about the good moments we had together. I miss those good moments we had together like mother and daughter outings sharing my feelings to you while you listen and give me the best advices i miss watching movies or tv with you while it was just me and you at home together cooking with you when i tell you about my dreams and you tell me what they really mean that gave me comfort and when i cry i put my head on you and you hugged me and tell me that everything will be ok and that you love me when i feel insecure about myself you always tell me that i am worth everything and beautiful. I miss your smile the way you smelled good hearing you laugh everything you did or said i miss you so much there isn't a day that i don't think about you momma. I just can't believe you're gone it breaks my heart every single day but those last moments being with you also broke my heart because you weren't yourself and were very ill i didn't like seeing you like that but we did the best we could spending time together at dialysis and rehab center I always told God ether you heal her or take her and he did he took you now that he did i wish he didn't i wished he could've healed you instead. I ask God way did you took my mom the person i needed the most and that loved me and helped me and that was a really good woman then God told me in my dreams "you may not understand what am i doing now but later on you will" that really touched me and gave me somewhat peace i know you needed healing someway i just wished it was the other way but God has token you for a reason and i hope i get to understand why soon. For now I'm going to try my best to continue with my life the way you want me to and the way i should i will never ever forget the things you taught me i will carry that as long as i will live i will have my mother and daughter days will my daughter one day and teach her the things you taught me i will tell her how amazing and beautiful you were I love you with all my heart momma

“ Reflection of Edith's loving spirit and grace:

Always

*I am the sunny blue skies of spring,
I am the warmth of a summer's day.*

I am always with you.

*I am the sand beneath your feet,
I am the stars that light the night.*

I am always with you.

*I am the colorful leaves of autumn,
I am the cold wind on a winter's walk.*

Remember, I am always with you.

Our prayers and love to the family, extended family, and friends. We all have been touched by an angel, rest in peace Edith.

“ God looked around His garden and found an empty place.

He then looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face.

He put His arms around you and lifted you to rest.

God's garden must be beautiful; He always takes the best.

He saw the road was getting rough, and the hills were hard to climb so

He closed your weary eyelids and whispered, "Peace be thine."

It broke out hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone, for part of us went with you the day God called you home.

Rest in Peace beautiful flower,

Love your aunts Daisy & Sandy

“ I know I could have saved your ashes to put into the ocean, but I wanted you to have the journey, all the way with the currents, to the open sea. And I know that when I finally get to see the shore, to hear them, I will feel you there.

“ *“I’ll lend you a little child of mine”, He said,
For you to love while she lives, and mourn when she’s dead.*

*It may be six or seven years, or twenty-two or three,
But will you ‘til I call her back take care of her for me?*

*I cannot promise she will stay, since all from earth returns.
But there are lessons taught down there I want this child to learn.*

*I’ve looked the wide world over in my search for teachers true,
And from the throngs that crowd life’s lanes, I have selected you.*

I fancied that I heard you say, Dear Lord Thy Will Be Done.

*For all the joy thy child shall bring, the risk of grief we’ll run.
We’ll shelter her with tenderness; we’ll love her while we may.*

And For The Happiness We’ve Known Forever Grateful Stay.”

Thank You Lord for sharing with us this beautiful strong, brave and courageous Angel that we all knew and loved as Edith.

“ My lovely niece Edith,

I had a dream that I was surrounded by beautiful flowers. You are in this paradise of flowers, the kind that can grow only in the Lord's Light, in HIS garden of LOVE and GRACE. You will always be my "give me some" baby.

Rest in Peace my beautiful flower.

Love your aunt Daisy

“ *Can I see another's woe,
And not be in sorrow too?
Can I see another's grief,
And not seek for kind relief?*

*Can I see a falling tear,
And not feel my sorrow's share?
Can a father see his child
Weep, nor be with sorrow filled?*

*Can a mother sit and hear
An infant groan, an infant fear?
No, no! never can it be!
Never, never can it be!
And can He who smiles on all
Hear the wren with sorrows small,
Hear the small bird's grief and care,
Hear the woes that infants bear --*

*And not sit beside the next,
Pouring pity in their breast,
And not sit the cradle near,
Weeping tear on infant's tear?*

*And not sit both night and day,
Wiping all our tears away?
Oh no! never can it be!
Never, never can it be!
He doth give his joy to all:
He becomes an infant small,
He becomes a man of woe,
He doth feel the sorrow too.*

*Think not thou canst sigh a sigh,
And thy Maker is not by:
Think not thou canst weep a tear,*

And thy Maker is not near.

*Oh He gives to us his joy,
That our grief He may destroy:
Till our grief is fled an gone
He doth sit by us and moan*

William Blake

No one's pain is greater than those of her husband, children, siblings and parents. Those who had a life built with her and gained life through her. Know you don't suffer alone, instead know that it is through your tears that we all know how much she was loved

“ My entire childhood and teen years are filled with so many memories of you and big Martin.... and little Martin. I remember the day you moved out... I cried for weeks cause I missed you and little Martin so much. :0)Remember how you use to yell at me for sucking his cheeks... :0). Words can not explain how sad I am that you had to go. I've never seen anyone fight as hard as you did. I love you so much Iris. Thank you for letting me sleep with you when I was scared to sleep alone and for always remembering to buy me those little bags of cheese puff things whenever you got little Martin a bag. Thank you for loving me and for being a part of my life and for all the wonderful memories that I couldnt even begin to write all down.. God bless you... I'll see you in heaven one day. Xoxo xoxo Jessie

“ I wondered why God let you suffer for such a long time. I could not understand until I understood that you suffered the way you did so that your family could easily let you go not wanting to see you in the unbearable pain you was in. Thank you for taking our suffering upon yourself. I will never know anyone as brave as you were throughout your illness. I am grateful to have had you as the sister I never had I will love you always and I hope that in my moment of death you will be there like you was for me in my moments of life with a beautiful smile on your face. I will wait for you in my dreams with kisses and hugs, hugs and kisses..... I love, I love, I Love you Your cousin Aida.
