“ Our hearts are heavy to learn of Elijah’s passing. He was a genuine young man who wore his emotions on his sleeve and always let you know how he was feeling. His smiles warmed and brightened our days, and we were lucky enough to be on the receiving end of many of those. Despite what some would consider limitations, his life was full of purpose and meaning, and we are beyond blessed to have our lives crossed paths. We will never forget Elijah or his family, may he rest in peace and his family find comfort in knowing they provided a wonderful life to a remarkable young man. Our thoughts and prayers are with you always.

“ My heart goes out to Elijah's family. I am blessed to have been part of his life during his elementary school years and got to watch his amazing progress as he learned to walk using a walker, push his own wheelchair, and participate in classroom making choices through alternative communication. Elijah's smile and laugh were infectious and he definitely brightened our lives. He had the softest hands and would gently reach out and a classmates or teacher's arm to let them know he was happy. May he rest in peace.

*Love,

“ Elijah, my son from God. You may not understand him initially but, give him a hug and prayer and he becomes you best friend, buddy, companion and many more. He loved sports that were of contact. His laugh when they contacted I'll never forget. He had a big appetite. He communicated in his own way and you understood what he was communicating. Do you all remember. I do. I'll miss him. And you will too. Love you Elijah. Say hi to Lord Jesus!
