“ Iam Scott Bowman, Eli Duran's step father and loved him as my own. I was there when he was born and would have never imagined seeing such a tragic ending of this amazing young man that I was blessed to be in his life. He and enjoyed many many awesome and personal talks together he always told he loves me and I him. If you knew Eli you could not help But love him he cared about everyone in his life, he never ever spoke bad about anyone. He had amazing heart and mind that wanted the best for everyone. And he would help family friends and strangers. God blessed me when he put Eli in my life. I know that one day I will see you again my amazing son. I'm so proud of you still. Love you till my last breath. Dad/ Scott

“ My heart hurts for Eli and his family, I've known Eli since he was 8 or 9 yrs old, my son's friend, the boys would always be hanging out, when Eli got his first job selling kitchen knives, I help him on how to sell them, and of course I was his first sale, he was so happy, and then I was honored with being , chosen to speak with his recruiter for the Army, I was so proud and scared for him, but he made sure when he came back for leave, he would come see me, he was a funny guy, and he will be missed dearly, my prayers are with his mom, Marie, I'm so sorry for your loss, no mom should ever have to bare this amount of loss, I pray for you, his wife and his sweet baby, and the rest of your family, may Eli watch over you all
Rest in peace Eli, we love you

“ Eli was the best of us. He had a beautiful soul, a huge heart, and an infectious laugh that always made me giggle. I shared a special bond with my cousin. We were both musicians, shared our own language, and had similar ways of thinking, with this dream of all of our family members being United and there for each other no matter what. I will always think of him and hold him dear to my heart, and I hope the memory of him brings us all light and love and that we live to the best of our potential.

“ Eli was my God son. He was the best. Loved life and his family and friends. Most of all he loved my cabbage and bacon dish. I made some when ever I knew he was coming around. I'll never forget I made him some at his and Nhu's baby shower. He took the whole container and told everyone it was his only. He was always the first to greet me and give me hugs. I loved him like my own. I know he's looking down at us trying to get a dish of my food. Aunt Tj
