“ My grandma was a strong woman and lived a long successful life. She had a fire, a spark to her, and always took care of business. She was a good woman and will be missed by her loved ones. She never got to meet her greatgrand baby Adysun but her memory will live on through stories and pictures. Grandma you were very loved and we will miss you. I know you're with grandpa up in heaven. ❤️

Angela you probably won't remember me. But I had the privilege of having your mom be my boss many years ago when I worked for HoJo. Though I was very young at the time she was a great mentor for working in the real world. I have many fond memories of your mom. My condolences to you and your family. Patricia Caldwell Hazelton
