*I love you so much, i will always miss you. This is not a goodbye, till we meet again with the big guy upstairs. Forever in my heart your memory will live. Nothing will be the same but now we carry a special place in our hearts for you as our lives unwind. You were a great and loving sister and an awesome aunt to your nephews who love and will miss you too...
I love you Always*

“ Lisa I think about you everyday, it seems so not real that you're not here today. I know how hard you fought and always with a smile on your face! We didn't see each other a lot but when we did, it was always fun. Will miss singing and listening to bachata with you my puerto rican sister, will forever remember you. Love you!

“ I not only lost a family member but a friend of 25 years as well to a short but arduous battle with cancer. At every turn when asked how are you doing? Her response was I'm ok, or fine. Her strength and faith were unwavering. I will miss you my friend. When I think of you, it will be of you shopping, dancing, smiling, laughing and enjoying life as you always did.

“ Lisa, you were the most sincere, caring and loving person, I've ever met, always around of your family and good friends, it's been 3 days since you've been gone, and today tears down come down my face when I saw the date of your viewing... I realized you are gone, gone, but I know that I won't see you anymore in a hospital in pain, now you are in a better place...RIP Lisa We will always remember you as a warrior that fought until the end.....

“ Elizabeth, your strength and bravery has taught me so much. You are a shining example of how to live a good life. I am so sad that I did not get to know you better but feel like I know you through your loving husband. The world is a little less today without you in it.

To Armando, your children, grandchildren, mother, siblings and friends, I hold you all close to my heart and pray her beautiful and inspiring memory gives you strength and light.

You will be so missed.
