“ I met Eva when the Brattin lived across the street on Nancy Lee. She was happy, joking and full of life. We had many game nights together laughing. God bless Eva and her family.

“ I remember when we first met Eva; at Hacienda Apts. in Orlando around 1977. My daughter Michelle played with April and Angel and they all became close. Michelle used to try to spend the night but always got homesick so Eva had to bring her home late in the night. Eva's home was like Michelle's 2nd home as she always made her feel welcome. Many years have passed since then and our girls are grown with kids of their own but I have never forgotten Eva. Rest in peace my friend as you no longer have pain or discomfort. I will lift your girls up in prayer to Jesus as they receive His comfort knowing you are safe now.

“ I met Eva when I wrote Joe a Medicare plan. She was just as described, kind & loving and always talking about the love of her family. When I left I felt like a friendship had started and visited several times. You will be missed Eva but you left a legacy of love and that wont be forgotten. Love you heavenly Angel.
