“ I met Chino in the Bronx back in 88. We were both trying to find a way out of a pretty bad situation. Struggling out of that lifestyle, we both wanted to luv a better life. We stayed in touch throughout eachothers journey. I was hapoy for him. I knew he was happy. A good brother. RIP

“ Feliciano...what can I say here...you are my sons father. So many emotions regarding your passing. You and I were not of the best of terms recently but I do have many memories of you, good and bad memories. I hope you find the peace you so desired in life through your death and pray that you are looking after your son Anthony from above. May you rest in peace and comfort in the loving arms of your mother and your daughter Erica...Rest in peace. Amen. 🙏
