

Fredrick Ernest Floer

August 22, 1942 - December 23, 2024

Fredrick "Fred" Floer

Fredrick "Fred" Ernest Floer, 82, of Deltona, Fla., had declined in health during recent months and died of heart failure December 23, 2024.

Born in Detroit on August 22, 1942, Fred was preceded in death by his parents, Charles "Chuck" F. and Marion Nutkins Floer of Michigan and his wife Geraldine "Gerry" Floer of Florida.

He is survived by his son Mark (Jamie) Floer of Ocoee, Fla.; niece Dena (Tim) Fore and sister-in-law Darlene Venaleck of Michigan; partner Christina Smith and her grandson William of Deltona.

Fred lived a full life that included a career as a pattern maker for the auto industry in Michigan. Then, he moved to Florida and eventually retired from maintenance at Walt Disney World where he participated in the opening ceremonies for EPCOT Center among other roles.

Sports were a passion for Fred. He served as an official for many years in youth and high school baseball, football and basketball in Central Florida when he was not cheering on his son's alma mater Georgia Tech (Go Jackets!) or the pro Detroit teams.

No services are planned. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the American Heart Association.

Arrangements being handled by Good Life Funeral Home & Cremation.

Tribute Wall

“ I'm very sorry to hear about Fred's passing We had talked a bit these last 4 years. I had tried to call yesterday March 6, when I had not heard from him for awhile. I got the disconnected message, I feared the worst. We umpired many games together. May God bless his family. Tony Maners

Tony Maners - March 06, 2025 at 11:35 PM