

Gilberto Pagan

February 17, 1957 - January 12, 2017

Gilberto Pagán lived a full and vibrant life surrounded by loved ones. He was born and raised in Bronx, New York, and moved to Orlando, Florida in the early 90's. He was an avid New York Mets and New York Giants fan, and loved family, music, cooking, bowling, cartoons, and movies.

He is survived by his wife Maria (Millie), five children (Gilbert, Stacy, Pedro, Emily and Janine), and fourteen grandchildren (Destiny, Sebastian, Avien, Isabelle, Kailani, Vanessa, Tatianna, Pete, Faith, Sydney, Donovan, Arielle, Madalyne and Jackson).

Family and friends are invited to a celebration of life from Saturday, January 14, to Monday, January 16, 2017, at the family home. Throughout the weekend the family will be honoring Gilberto's request to celebrate life by sharing memories, prayers, music, and each other's love and company.

With sincere gratitude, we thank you for keeping Gilberto and family in your thoughts and prayers. May God continue to bless us all.

"A limb has fallen from our family tree
That says please smile, grieve not for me.
Remember the good times, the laughter, the song,

The good life I lived while I was strong."

“ *To Brother Gil,
Though you may be gone in the flesh you will always be remembered by so many that have come to know and love you. You will always be part of the Jackson Avenue Moore House Crew DNA and as long as many of us are still around we will always remember those who we have lost and we will always cherish those special moments that each of you have left etched in our hearts and memories. You left us way too early in life but I suppose the good Lord had other plans for you. In time the void of your memory will ease the pain that is left in many hearts. Its never easy losing a family member or friend, but in time we will all embrace a heavenly reunion. You will now be a Guardian Angel over those you love and always cared for. To many, you will always be remembered as a Brother. When you get to the Heavenly gates say hello to all those who have left us before you... RIP Gil, You may be gone but you will never be forgotten.... Mike Vincenty & The Vincenty Family.*
