December 11, 1943 - February 2, 2026

Gladys Flores de Fagundo passed away in Orlando, Florida on February 2, 2026. She was born in Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico on December 11, 1943, to her parents, Victor Flores Algarine and Maria Mojica. Gladys grew up in Puerto Rico and moved to New York where she met her husband of 65 years Adalberto Fagundo Ortiz. In New York, the couple opened their own ceramic/pottery shop together and named it Lee Wemapic Ceramics. Gladys loved pottery and ceramics and that love permeated her entire life as she got older, she continued to enjoy painting ceramics, which came in the form of gifts from her grandchildren. While in New York the couple also started a family and opened another business, a bodega.

As they continued to grow their family, they decided that it was time to move back to Puerto Rico, where they lived for 15 years before relocating to Florida. Gladys was a bright soul. She loved to make people laugh and was always cracking jokes. She also loved to dance and was a missionary at heart. She loved her family dearly and everyone that met her enjoyed her warm and bubbly personality.

She is survived by her children, Adalberto Fagundo, Jr, Lizette Torres (Sifredo), Wendy Fagundo and Marie Fagundo; her sister, Carmen Flores; her grandchildren, Sheila Young (Michael), Freddy Torres (Mary), Valerie Kelley (Jonathan), Glizette Zayas (Alexander), Yahaira Melendez, Eduardo Rivera, Alejandro Rivera, Gladmarie, Frankie Hall, Ferbis Albizu, and Adalberto Fagundo III; and great grandchildren, Margot Young, Sean Torres, Elizabeth

Kelly, Nicole, Julie, Lucas, Noah Diaz, Jules Hall, and Nora Hall.
