“ Harvey Edgerton, aka, The Man Who Feeds Seagulls, lived a very passionate life full of love, joy and pain. We worked together for many years in the Respiratory Therapy Department at Beth Israel Hospital and remained dear friends to the end. He taught me much about life and emphasized that it is far better to light one candle than to curse the darkness. Many moons ago he made this beautiful dish for me which I will forever treasure. The Man Who Feeds Seagulls will always remain deeply embedded in my heart and soul.

“ What an incredible impact my Uncle Harvey has made upon me. He taught me many simple yet profound truths. He spoke responsibility and maturity into my very wild and precarious adolescence. Uncle Harvey defended and validated my “uniqueness.” He gave me my first set of art supplies when it was clear that if he didn’t, I would more than likely ruin all of his. All of these acts of love and patience motivated and inspired me to become much of who I am. He was and will remain a significant presence in my life-a giant- a legacy. God ever bless and strengthen my family.

“ If I look back on memories of my childhood one of the brightest stars was knowing my Uncle Harvey. When he came to visit it was as like having a movie star or royalty over.

*He truly epitomized the term all “real man”
Athlete, entertainer, chef, father. He did it all.*

Harvey you will truly be missed but your energy and influence lives in us all. Say hello to my mother and journey well.

“ My Uncle Harvey was the only adult male in my entire life that made me feel loved, like I mattered and was somebody. My father he became when none could ever exist for me. He took the time to include me and made me feel like one of his own. I am blessed twice to have had an Uncle Harvey and Dad. He treated me nice!
Love, Toni

“ Memories of my grandfather flood my mind, as we remember the moments that made us laugh so hard that we cried. Our grandfather was such a smart and loving man, who always cherished family and loved his loved ones no matter what. As he Rest In Peace he has left our family stronger than ever. Another angel has found his wings and has set off on a flight safe into the arms of God.

May you Rest In Peace Grandpa Harvey

*Love Always,
Your granddaughters Kaylene and Sabrina*

“ Daddy,
I am back in New York covered in four feet of snow, looking up at you as you pull me from street to street. You pulled that sled on the streets of New York, as I held my younger brother and sister. All I could think was no man or father could measure up to you! To safety you guided us from out of the storm.

You never stopped pulling that sleigh cause I always feel safe because of you.

Daddy I love you.

*Dad,
You taught me to hold my head up to adversity, you loved me unconditionally and you encouraged me to soar higher than my own abilities could fly.
Dad you taught me and I learned to be the daughter, mother, wife, sister, friend and child of god.
Miss you dad but never forgotten!
Love Katie*

“ We are so sorry about the loss of our dear Uncle. We have many happy memories and pictures of him and the family. We will treasure them, and never forget those precious memories. Please stay strong during this difficult time, and turn to God in prayer for comfort and support. Mathew 5:4 assures us that God is close to the brokenhearted, and he saves those who are crushed in spirit.

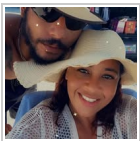

Love Always,
Uncle Keith, Aunt Lita and the rest of the family.

Those special memories of you will always bring a smile, if only i could have you back for just a little while Then we could sit and talk again just like we used to do, you always meant so very much and always will do too The fact that you're no longer here will always cause me pain but you're forever in my heart dad until we meet again.

“ Our first Date out of town was to meet Uncle Harvey in Orlando. Stefan had to introduce me to the Matriarch of the Family. Harvey loved his Stefanhead. He was very ill and could not make it to the wedding but sent his son to represent him, he was thoughtful and Caring. He will truly be missed.
