“ So very grateful that I got to know him most of my life. I never forget the time Charley 🥰🐤👶 and I dropped off baby chickens on his front door and rang the doorbell and left. He was so frustrated, but it was hysterical.. my next favorite memory is when Charley 🥰🐤👶 and I stopped by to see him before we got married. We had such a fantastic visit!!!! Sitting outside Butch’s house waiting for Uncle Bud to show up to listen to the both of them talk shit and entertain me. Was some of my favorite memories ever in life. Thinking of you all so much. I know Butch is up there fishing away with him right now!!
Love you uncle bud
