Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,

When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crost the bar.

-Alfred Lord Tennyson

“ I met Huntre through Donna, when they lived here in Roanoke Va. He was a very cheerful guy and laughing always at basically anything. He sure did love you, Donna and I'm so sorry for your loss but now he is resting and no more pain. Rest easy now. God Bless.

“ Huntre's laugh and smile was intoxicating! He was larger than life! I will never forget floating the pathfinder, having the Cessna cut off in flight, crab cakes on Tangier Island, Bourbon Street, and floating the river. Great memories!

“ I will never forget the days in Hatteras standing chest deep cold water. I remember your dad knew exactly where the fish would be. Great times. I'll never see the ocean and not think about you. I will see you again one day
