“ I remember Inocensia "Penny" from way back to the days of living in Niagara Falls, NY. I went to school with her son as well as worked with him and her husband at Super Duper. She used to wait on me when she worked at the bank but always would see her come in the store and chat with both her husband Art as well as her son Art. What nice memories to cherish now. I am sorry to come across the news of her passing now. If I had only know sooner. Of course as time wears on and people move to different places, life changes for us too. My thoughts and condolences are her family. May her memory be a blessing. RIP Inocensia...say hello to Art for me.
