“ What I will always remember and cherish were the weekends we used to spent together either in Rio Grande or at my parents house in Arecibo. Used to love these long rides to be received by all with so much love and care. When my Dad died, after all the services, one day Tío Ismael went home and sat at my Dad’s bar and drank of everything my Dad had. And before he left, he told us he was never staying home again. I guess he could not deal with my Dad not being around. And he never did stay at home anymore. Although it was sad and missed very much, we understood. I cherish soo many great moments we had together as a family when we we

Tio Ismael & Alay always welcomed us with open arms when we visited their apartment in Brooklyn. He loved to drink Cognac with Papa Mino and tell us jokes. Rest In Peace.

“ His chuletas...OMG Tio chuletas were the best. I had so many memories of him, from NY to PR. His sense of humor, his love for his family, his recipes for every and any health issue. Most of all...his smile. I will forever treasure every memory I have of him. Love you Tio...
