“ My only close cousins, loved them both, Sue and Rob were later. Around 8-11 years of age I stayed for overnights and they taught me all boy fun adventures in the “city” one of their friends named me the “Bommer” Jimmy would remember....truly my best “boy”friend cousins!

“ I will never forget how Cousin Jimmy and his brothers took me hunting after my father died. He also hired Steve and myself to do various jobs around his house to help us make some extra money. He also helped me out with a good summer job after my first year of college. He was such a giving person. He will be missed.
